MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION/DISCUSSION

This case pertains to an alleged unreasonable use of force under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that occurred on January 15, 2016 in the City of Compton involving Plaintiff Sheldon Lockett (“Plaintiff”) and Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Deputies Defendant Deputy Samuel Aldama (“Deputy Aldama”) stemming from punches used by Deputy Aldama during the course of Plaintiff’s arrest. See generally Dkt. 41, Plaintiff’s Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”).

There is also no cause of action for alleged unlawful arrest nor fabrication of evidence in this action. Further, on October 21, 2020, the Court denied Plaintiff’s Motion for leave to Amend his Complaint to add a claim for “deliberate or reckless fabrication and/or suppression of evidence.” See generally Dkt. 245 (“The motion to amend is denied because Plaintiff was not diligent in asserting the fabrication/suppression of evidence claim.”)

On June 10, 2020, Plaintiff served Plaintiffs’ Expert Disclosures. Exhibit 1. Despite the aforementioned procedural and substantive posture of this case, Plaintiffs experts, especially Michael Kraut (“Mr. Kraut”), offer irrelevant opinions that Plaintiff’s arrest and/or prosecution was unlawful, Plaintiff was harmed due to being unlawfully arrested or prosecuted without probable cause, there was a lack of probable cause to arrest due to alleged fabricated evidence, etc. See Exhibit 2- Mr. Kraut report. Plaintiffs’ experts, Dr. Michele Cooley-Strickland (“Dr. Cooley-Strickland”), Mr. Roger Clark (“Mr. Clark”), Mr. Bryan Burnett (“Mr. Burnett”) and Mitchell L. Einsen, Ph.D. (“Dr. Einsen”), also slip in similar “fabrication/suppression of evidence” or unlawful arrest and damaging prosecution related opinions. Exhibit 3-Dr. Cooley-Strickland Report, Exhibit 4- Mr. Clark Report, Exhibit 5- Mr. Burnett report, Exhibit 6- Dr. Einsen Report.

Defendants COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES and LOS ANGELES COUNTY SHERIFF’S DEPARTMENT (collectively, “Defendant County”) instant motion

1 hereby respectfully requests that the Court exclude irrelevant opinions, argument,
2 and/or testimony that Plaintiff's arrest and/or prosecution was unlawful, Plaintiff
3 was harmed due to being unlawfully arrested or prosecuted without probable cause,
4 there was a lack of probable cause to arrest due to alleged fabricated evidence, etc.

5 Defendants' motion in limine is made upon the grounds that such opinions,
6 argument, and/or testimony are improper and excludable because they are irrelevant,
7 misleading, and confusing. Federal Rules of Evidence, Rules 401, 402, 403, and 702.
8 The matters for trial are limited only to the issues raised in the pleadings, which do 9 not include an unlawful arrest nor fabrication of evidence claim.

10 Further, Federal Rule of Evidence 702 ("Rule 702") governs the admissibility
11 of expert testimony stating, "A witness who is qualified as an expert by knowledge,
12 skill, experience, training, or education may testify in the form of an opinion or 13 otherwise if the expert's scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will 14 help the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue."
15 Accordingly, Plaintiff's experts should not be permitted to offer opinions beyond the 16 claims at issue in this case. Allowing such would be unfairly and unduly prejudicial
17 to Defendants, while being confusing and misleading to a jury and would not "help" 18 the trier of fact in this case.

19 Further, Plaintiffs' expert's opinions that evidence was allegedly fabricated
20 and/or whether probable cause existed for Plaintiff's arrest are textbook inadmissible
21 credibility opinions and legal conclusions. It is well-established that expert 22 testimony that weighs factual evidence and/or assigns credibility to certain sources
23 of evidence over others does not assist the trier of fact. See, e.g., United States v.
24 Toledo, 985 F.2d 1462, 1470 (10th Cir.1993) (holding that "[t]he credibility of 25 witnesses is generally not an appropriate subject for expert testimony.").

26 Even the argument that alleged fabrication of evidence is relevant to the 27 Defendant's credibility fails because the evidence Plaintiff claims may have been 28 fabricated, ex. alleged improper suggestive incrimination during a criminal lineup

1 or GSR testing, are irrelevant to whether the force used during the incident was 2 reasonable or not.

3 Thus, the most judicially efficient, practical, fair, and lawful course is to 4 exclude any and all testimony, witnesses, evidence, facts or reference of any kind to 5 unlawful arrest and/or fabrication of evidence including Plaintiff's expert, Michael 6 Kraut, and Plaintiff's experts' opinions that evidence was/may have been fabricated
7 and, thus, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and damaged due to prosecution. For the 8 reasons set forth herein, Defendants respectfully request that the Court grant
9 Defendants' Motion in Limine.

10 Under Federal Rules of Evidence, Rule 104(a), “[p]reliminary questions
11 concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, 12 or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the court, subject to the 13 provisions of subdivision (b).” Accordingly, and pursuant to FRE 104(a), 14 Defendants request such a hearing outside the presence of the jury to review his 15 testimony if this Court is inclined to deny this motion.

16 II. LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR MOTIONS IN LIMINE

17 A motion in limine “is any motion, whether made before or during trial, to 18 exclude anticipated prejudicial evidence before the evidence is actually offered.”
19 Luce v. United States (1984) 469 U.S. 38, 40. Motions in limine are well recognized 20 in practice and by case law. See Ohler v. United States (2000) 529 U.S. 753, 758;
21 United States v. Cook (9th Cir. 1979) 608 F.2d 1175, 1186.

22 The purpose is to avoid the futile attempt of “unring[ing] the bell” when jurors
23 have seen or heard inadmissible evidence, even when stricken from the record. See 24 Brodit v. Cambra, 350 F.3d 985, 1004-05 (9th Cir.2003) (citing Kelly v. New West 25 Fed. Sav., 49 Cal.App. 4th 659, 669 (1996)). Motions in limine also serve to 26 streamline trials, by settling evidentiary disputes in advance. See U.S. v. Tokash, 282
27 F.3d 962, 968 (7th Cir.2002).

1 III. MEET AND CONFER

2 On September 21, 2021, the parties began to meet and confer in advance of a
 3 Rule 16 pretrial conference of counsel and continued at various dates and times
 4 thereafter, including multiple video conferences, letters outlining this and other
 5 motions in limine, emails, etc. The final correspondence regarding Defendants'
 6 proposed motions in limine was dated October 11, 2021. All counsel participated 7 and the undersigned counsel for Defendants County of Los Angeles and the Los 8 Angeles Sheriff's Department certifies that the following motion and related 9 documents reflect compliance with the FRCP, local rules, and this Court's pretrial 10 orders.

11 IV. OPINIONS, ARGUMENT, AND/OR EVIDENCE REGARDING AN 12 ALLEGED UNLAWFUL ARREST DUE TO ALLEGED
 13 "FABRICATION OF EVIDENCE" CLAIM MUST BE EXCLUDED
 14 BECAUSE IT IS IRRELEVANT AND PREJUDICIAL

15 Federal Rule of Evidence 402 provides that all relevant evidence is admissible
 16 and evidence that is not relevant is inadmissible. Federal Rule of Evidence Rule 401
 17 defines relevant evidence as "evidence having any tendency to make the existence
 18 of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable
 19 or less probable than it would be without the evidence." (Emphasis added). Rule 403
 20 provides that relevant evidence may be excluded if it will cause prejudice, undue 21 delay, a waste of time, or a needless presentation of cumulative evidence in the 22 discretion of the Court. Obrey v. Johnson, 440 F.3d 691, 698 (9th Cir. 2005).

23 Defendants seek to preclude Plaintiff from offering argument, opinions,
 24 and/or evidence regarding the alleged unlawful arrest and/or fabrication of evidence
 25 because such are not causes of action in the matter at bar, and the case solely pertains 26 to allegations of excessive force. Thus, such evidence, argument and opinions are 27 not "relevant" because they clearly do not have "any tendency to make the existence
 28 of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence." FRE 401 (Emphasis added).

1 Further and even if such is tangentially relevant, such opinions, argument, 2 and/or evidence would only serve to attempt to unfairly prejudice defendants and 3 confuse/mislead the jury as to the issues, thus wasting time and causing undue delay.

4 Plaintiff has propounded numerous written requests and plaintiff's experts 5 have offered opinions directed towards alleged unlawful arrest and/or fabrication of 6 evidence claim that are not at issue in this case. See, Dkt 278 Order DENYING 7 Motion to Strike Supplemental Disclosures (Dkt. 270); Order GRANTING IN 8 PART Motion to Strike Expert Reports (Dkt. 271) ("The Court agrees with 9 Defendants' general proposition that Plaintiff's experts should not opine on whether 10 there was fabrication of evidence related to Plaintiff's arrest because there is no 11 fabrication of evidence claim in this case").

12 Thus, Defendants also anticipate that Plaintiff may seek to elicit testimony
13 regarding the alleged unlawful arrest based on instances of fabrication of evidence 14 by LASD Deputies. Such testimony about claims and causes of action that never 15 existed will confuse the jury and waste time.

16 V. PLAINTIFF'S EXPERTS' OPINIONS REGARDING 17 ALLEGED UNLAWFUL ARREST AND/OR THE FABRICATION OF 18 EVIDENCE MUST BE EXCLUDED AS IRRELEVANT, CONFUSING
19 TO THE JURY, AND INADMISSIBLE CREDIBILITY OPINIONS
20 AND LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

21 Within Plaintiff's experts' reports and depositions, there are numerous 22 opinions offered that Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, unlawfully prosecuted and 23 damaged thereby based on Plaintiff's allegations that LASD Deputies supposedly 24 presented the District Attorney with false evidence. There is no claim for unlawful 25 arrest nor fabrication of evidence. Defendants seek to preclude such evidence, 26 argument, and/or opinions as irrelevant and/or outweighed by the danger of undue 27 prejudice, waste of time, and confusion of the jury.

28 First, such opinions, argument, and/or testimony should be excluded as a waste of time and confusing to the jury because in order to "unring the bell,"

1 Defendants will then have to present opinions, argument, and/or testimony that 2 Plaintiff was not unlawfully arrested and/or evidence was not fabricated. Such would 3 be a waste of time because the only remaining claim is for excessive force, but such 4 would be necessary to combat the inherent prejudice caused by introduction of such 5 testimony, opinions, and/or evidence.

6 Further, Federal Rule of Evidence 702 (“Rule 702”) governs the admissibility
7 of expert testimony stating, “A witness who is qualified as an expert by knowledge,
8 skill, experience, training, or education may testify in the form of an opinion or 9 otherwise if the expert's scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will
10 help the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue.”

11 Due to the “special kind prejudice” improper expert testimony may cause, the 12 admissibility requirements of expert testimony are stringent, the party presenting the 13 expert bears the burden of proving the admissibility of the expert's opinions, and the 14 Court has a duty to screen expert testimony “to ensure that the expert testimony both 15 rests on reliable foundation and is relevant.” Acad. of Motion Pictures Arts & Scis.

16 v. GoDaddy.com, Inc., 2013 WL 12122803, at *2 (CD. Cal. June 21, 17 2013)(Emphasis added); Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharm., Inc., 509 U.S. 579, 589-
18 90 (1993)(“Daubert I”); Kumho Tire Co. v. Carmichael, 526 U.S. 137, 147 (1999);
19 Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharma., Inc., 43 F.3d 1311, 1315 (1995) (“Daubert II”);
20 Christophersen v. Allied-Signal Corp., 938 F.2d 1106, 1112 n. 10 (5th Cir. 1991), 21 cert. denied, 112 S.Ct. 1280 (1992) (“expert testimony creates the risk of a special 22 kind of prejudice”); Gen. Elec. Co. v. Joiner, 522 U.S. 136, 148 (1997) (“neither the 23 difficulty of the task nor any comparative lack of expertise can excuse the judge 24 from exercising the ‘gatekeeper’ duties that the Federal Rules impose.”); see also 25 Fed. Rules Evid. 702.

26 Relevant expert testimony “must be ‘tied to the facts’ of the case” and “assist 27 the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue.”
28 Fed.R.Evid. 702; Daubert, 509 U.S. at 591; Cooper v. Brown, 510 F.3d 870, 942

1 (9th Cir. 2007) (Emphasis added and citing Daubert II, 43 F.3d at 1315.) If expert 2 testimony is offered to explain an issue or fact that average jurors can understand on 3 their own, it may be deemed non-helpful, and inadmissible on that basis. Beech
4 Aircraft Corp. v. United States, 51 F.3d 834, 842 (9th Cir.1995)

5 It is well-established that expert testimony that weighs factual evidence and/or 6 assigns credibility to certain sources of evidence over others does not assist the trier
7 of fact. See, e.g., United States v. Toledo, 985 F.2d 1462, 1470 (10th Cir.1993)
8 (holding that “[t]he credibility of witnesses is generally not an appropriate subject
9 for expert testimony.”); United States v. Ward, 169 F.2d 460, 462 (3d Cir. 1948)
10 (“[T]he ‘expert’ may not go so far as to usurp the exclusive function of the jury to 11 weigh the evidence and determine credibility,” or offer improper legal opinions);
12 Nimely v. City of New York, 414 F.3d 381, 398 (2d Cir. 2005) (internal quotation 13 omitted) (“Such testimony does not assist the trier of fact, but rather undertakes to 14 tell the jury what result to reach and attempts to substitute the expert’s judgment for 15 the jury’s.”).

16 Daubert established that the trial judge, in making the initial determination 17 whether to admit the evidence, must determine whether the expert’s testimony
18 reflects (1) “scientific knowledge,” and (2) will assist the trier of fact to understand
19 or determine a material fact at issue. Daubert 509 U.S. at 592. This requires “a 20 preliminary assessment of whether the reasoning or methodology underlying the 21 testimony is scientifically valid and of whether that reasoning or methodology
22 properly can be applied to the facts in issue.” Id. at 592–93.

23 When the Supreme Court remanded Daubert to the Ninth Circuit, the Ninth
24 Circuit added that, where the proffered testimony is not based on independent 25 research, in order to be admissible as “scientific knowledge,” it must be supported 26 by “objective, verifiable evidence that the testimony is based on ‘scientifically valid
27 principles.’” Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 43 F.3d 1311, 1318 (9th 28 Cir.1995); see also Mitchell v. Gencorp Inc., 165 F.3d 778, 781 (10th Cir. 1999)

1 (excluding causation testimony because the exposure information relied upon by the 2 expert “was ‘so sadly lacking as to be mere guesswork’ ”)

3 “One very significant fact to be considered is whether the experts are 4 proposing to testify about matters growing naturally and directly out of research they 5 have conducted independent of litigation, or whether they have developed their 6 opinions expressly for purposes of testifying.” Daubert II, 43 F.3d at 1317; e.g., Lust
7 v. Merrell Dow Pharm., Inc., 89 F.3d 594, 597 (9th Cir. 1996) Expert testimony that 8 “simply rehash[es] otherwise admissible evidence about which [the expert] has no
9 personal knowledge ... is inadmissible.” U.S. v. Pacific Gas and Electric Co., 2016
10 WL 1640462 at *2 (N.D. Cal. April 26, 2016) Such is more “properly presented 11 through percipient witnesses and documentary evidence.” In re Rezulin Prods. Liab.
12 Litig., 309 F.Supp.2d 531, 551 (S.D.N.Y. 2004).

13 Further, expert testimony that merely repackages and presents counsel's 14 interpretation of the facts of the case with the added gravitas of the expert has been 15 routinely found to be unhelpful to the jury, and is regularly excluded on that basis.
16 Elliott v. Versa CIC, L.P., 349 F. Supp. 3d 1004, 1006–07 (S.D. Cal. 2018)(“Where 17 an expert becomes an advocate for a cause, he therefore departs from the ranks of an 18 objective expert witness, and any resulting testimony would be unfairly prejudicial 19 and misleading.”); In re Rezulin Prod. Liab. Litig., 309 F. Supp. 2d at 551 (S.D.N.Y.
20 2004) (holding that experts should not be permitted to “supplant the role of counsel 21 in making argument at trial, and the role of the jury in interpreting the evidence.”);
22 EEOC v. Morgan Stanley & Co., 324 F. Supp. 2d 451, 467-468 (S.D.N.Y. 2004)
23 (excluding expert testimony that “would be more appropriate when presented by 24 defense counsel themselves, rather than by an expert.”).

26 Finally, inferences about the intent or motive of parties or others lie outside 27 the bounds of expert testimony, and are inadmissible. In re: Rezulin Products
28 Liability Litigation, 309 F.Supp.2d 531, 545-46 (S.D. N.Y. 2004). Plaintiffs' experts are no better equipped than the jurors to draw inferences or conclusions about

1 credibility, states of mind, or intent, and their biased interpretations are particularly 2 troublesome because an expert's testimony has an "aura of special reliability and 3 trustworthiness." United States v. Aramal, 488 F.2d 1148, 1153 (9th Cir. 1973)

4 Here, there is no unlawful arrest nor fabrication of evidence claim. However,
5 Plaintiff's experts subtly and not so subtly offer such similar unhelpful credibility
6 and/or legal conclusion opinions that Defendants fabricated evidence and/or that 7 Plaintiff was damaged due to prosecution stemming from an unlawful arrest based 8 on allegedly fabricated evidence, all of which must be excluded from trial as such is 9 patently irrelevant, improper, not helpful to the jury, and more prejudicial than 10 probative. It is undisputed that the experts were not percipient witnesses to the 11 incident so as to say what factual allegation was true or false. Further, credibility 12 opinions or opinions as to whether a witness was truthful or untruthful does not 13 require any "scientific knowledge" based on any "scientifically valid principles."

14 The specific Plaintiff expert opinions and argument based thereon that 15 Defendants seek to exclude are set forth below:

16 1. MR. MICHAEL KRAUT

17

- "Thank you for retaining me to analyze and render opinions regarding the 18 January 15, 2016 arrest of Sheldon Lockett by Los Angeles County Sheriff's 19 Department ("LASD") Deputy Mizrain Orrego and Deputy Samuel Aldama, 20 specifically in light of how the Los Angeles County District Attorney's 21 Office evaluates and files cases based on the incident reports submitted to 22 them and what is represented as true and accurate by law enforcement at the 23 time a case is submitted." Exhibit 2, pg. 1, ¶ 1
- "It should be noted that the individual reports prepared by Deputy Orrego and 24 Deputy Aldama appear to be remarkably similar to each other in some places
25 use the exact same language." Exhibit 2, pg. 3, ¶ 1
- "It is interesting to note that the deputies did not use a 'six pack' or other 26 means for Ms. Ross of (sic) any other witness to identify the shooter." Exhibit
27 2, pg. 3, ¶ 8

- 1 ○ “It should be noted that there is no indication that Mr. Lockett’s GSR test
2 resulted showed anything of significance to corroborate the allegation that Mr.
3 Lockett ever handled a gun.” Exhibit 2, pg. 5, ¶ 1
- 4 ○ “In this case, it appears the deputies involved withheld critical evidence,
5 specifically the suggestive language used by Deputy Benzor when speaking 6 with the witness, the apparent failure to admonish the witnesses and the 7 distance and lack of clear view of the suspect that the witness was afforded 8 during the identification process.” Exhibit 2, pg. 8, ¶ 5
- 9 ○ “It also appears that Deputy Orrego and Deputy Aladama presented false
10 evidence to the prosecutor, specifically that Mr. Lockett was seen with a 11 firearm.” Exhibit 2, pg. 8, ¶ 5
- 12 ○ “Biases by reporting parties, or documenting parties, may account for a non-13 objective presentation of evidence. In some cases, those biases may be so 14 substantial that the entire case could be tainted or in the worst of cases, 15 fabricated.” Exhibit 2, pg. 8, ¶ 7
- 16 ○ “It is my expert opinion that any prosecutorial determination would have been 17 tainted by the false information included in the deputy’s reports as well as 18 critical information that was omitted from these reports.” Exhibit 2, pg. 9, ¶

20 2. DR. MICHELE COOLEY-STRICKLAND

- 21 ○ “The results of Mr. Lockett’s psychiatric diagnoses and the nature and extent 22 of his emotional and behavioral health are related to his experiences having 23 been physically beaten by Los Angeles Sheriff’s Deputies on January 15, 24 2016, taken to a hospital emergency room, subsequently imprisoned in the 25 Los Angeles County jail for eight to nine months, and involved in the judicial 26 system with the possibility of two life sentences -- despite being innocent of 27 the attempted murder crimes for which he was accused.” - Exhibit 3; 28 EXPERT REPORT OF DR. MICHELE COOLEY-STRICKLAND – PAGE
5; ¶ 13/Ln. 18-26
- “Mr. Lockett has major impairment in multiple areas because of the trauma from having been chased, beaten, jailed, and involved in the judicial system for eight to nine months with the possibility of two life sentences for crimes that he did not commit. - Exhibit 3; EXPERT REPORT OF DR. MICHELE
COOLEY-STRICKLAND – PAGE 5; ¶ 15/Ln. 13-17
- “Mr. Lockett reported having been involved with law enforcement, the legal system, and jail prior January 15, 2016 (see Legal History, page 8). However,

1 he distinguishes the current “incident” from prior legal involvement because 2 in those earlier cases, he had committed unlawful acts and thereby could make 3 sense of the resultant punishment. Mr. Lockett repeatedly emphasized that the 4 events associated with the January 15, 2016 “incident” were extremely 5 difficult to process because he was innocent. Mr. Lockett described that his 6 experience with the legal process as an innocent man trying to be released
7 from prison was also traumatic.” - Exhibit 3

- “It is likely that his adverse experiences with the judicial system, court proceedings, and incarceration resulted in continuous traumas for “eight to nine months” while facing up to two life sentences -- all while knowing he was innocent, but even his own attorneys did not believe him. Mr. Lockett’s fears and distrust now include lawyers, judges, and those affiliated with them.” - Exhibit 3

3. MR. ROGER CLARK

- “4. Taking Mr. Lockett’s allegations as true, and as supported by the record thus far, Deputies Orrego and Aldama submitted false police reports, in violation of SBSD policy, POST training, and the Law (as taught by POST).- Exhibit 4/pg. 14 of 24
- “This case presents another in a long line of case demonstrating the Sheriff’s Department and County of Los Angeles’ customs, policies, practices, and/or procedures which were directed, encouraged, allowed, and/or ratified by policy making officers/deputies. Many of these are listed in the complaint in this case and the evidence in this case shows the policies exist: h. By allowing, tolerating, and/or encouraging police officers who:
 - Fail to file complete and accurate police reports;
 - File false police reports;
 - Make false statements;
 - Arrange unduly suggestive field show ups to lead witnesses to give false information and/or to bolster officers’ stories; and/or
 - Obstruct or interfere with investigations of unconstitutional or unlawful police conduct by withholding and/or concealing material information” - Exhibit 4/pg. 16 of 24

1 4. MR. BRYAN BURNETT

2 ○ “In light of the discussion above, it is my opinion that there is no credible
3 evidence that Lockett fired a gun at around 1505 (the time of the alleged 4 shooting) or that he handled a gun at any time on the date of the subject incident.”- Exhibit 5

5 5. MITCHELL L. EINSEN, PH.D.

6 ○ “In the current case, although the officer claims to have admonished the 7 witness before the showup, the witness notes that she did not take note of that 8 instruction, and has no memory for being admonished. Even if a proper 9 admonition had been read, the power of telling the witness prior to the 10 admonition that they had “caught the guy” would likely have wiped out any potential protestive effect of this instruction.” - Exhibit 6

11 ○ “The U.S. Supreme Court has even acknowledged the suggestiveness of this 12 procedure (Stovall v. Denno, 1967) and specifically noted that “The practice 13 of showing suspects singly to persons for the purpose of identification, and 14 not as part of a lineup, has been widely condemned” (Stovall v. Denno US
15 388, US 293, 1967). The court ruled that despite the inherent suggestiveness
16 of the one-to-one confrontation between the suspect and the witness, showups
17 may be allowed under certain exigent circumstances, such as time 18 pressures...Thus, there were no time pressures or exigent circumstances of 19 any kind that necessitated the use of the highly suggestive showup procedure, rather than taking the time to compose a fair and non-suggestive photographic lineup.” Exhibit 6

20 Here, a plain reading of the aforementioned excerpts of Plaintiff’s experts’
21 opinions state unlawful arrest/ “deliberate or reckless fabrication and/or suppression 22 of evidence” opinions regarding the lawfulness of Plaintiff’s arrest, not regarding 23 whether the force was excessive or not, which renders such opinions and 24 argument/testimony thereon patently irrelevant and inadmissible. The 25 aforementioned opinions are not relevant because they will not “help the trier of fact 26 to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue,” i.e. whether the force was 27 excessive, and must be excluded. FRE 702. Permitting the aforementioned opinions 28 to be offered before the jury will only confuse and mislead the jury as to the issues.

1 The aforementioned opinions are also plainly inappropriate credibility
2 opinions and/or legal conclusions as to the lawfulness of Plaintiff's arrest and 3 alleged damage therefrom. Whether or not Plaintiff was allegedly unlawfully
4 arrested and harmed from his prosecution is irrelevant in this action. This case is 5 only about excessive force due to alleged punches by Deputy Aldama.

6 Thus, the aforementioned expert opinions and argument or testimony thereon 7 regarding an alleged unlawful arrest and prosecution due to alleged fabrication of 8 evidence must be excluded from trial.

9 VI. CONCLUSION

10 For the foregoing reasons Defendants respectfully request that the Court
11 grant Defendants' instant motion in limine No. 5.
